- occupy as your principal residence during the assessment year, and
- are liable for the payment of property taxes.

Note: You may receive a pro-rata senior citizens homestead exemption if property is first occupied as your principal residence after January 1 of any assessment year.

Who is eligible?

To qualify for the senior citizens homestead exemption you must

- be 65 years of age or older during the assessment year,
- own or have a legal or equitable interest in the property on which a single family residence is occupied as your principal residence during the assessment year, and

If you previously received a senior citizens homestead exemption and now reside in a facility licensed under the Assisted Living and Shared Housing Act, Nursing Home Care Act, or ID/DD (intellectually disabled/developmentally disabled) Community Care Act of 2013, MC/DD (Medically Complex for the Developmentally Disabled) Act, or Specialized Mental Health Rehabilitation Act, you are still eligible to receive this exemption provided

- your property is occupied by your spouse, who is 65 years of age or older, or
- your property remains unoccupied during the assessment year.

Note: A resident of a cooperative apartment building who has a leasehold interest does not qualify for this exemption.
